Bucky has sprung a new one in this matter of managing Interfraternity Proms. Instead of paying six prices for an out-of-town band, with more or less of a reputation, he hires two local bands that everybody knows, and stages a battle for the bands to fight it out.

This ought to be a popular move, and there should be a great demand for ring-side seats, so to speak. Moreover, since the men as well as the women get favors, the stag line will have something to ease its heartaches on account of the guy who invited her first.

If we remember correctly, The Razz Berry, that yearly scandal rag of Pi Delta Epsilon, is scheduled to appear at the Prom. So far we have heard nothing as to its contents, but it's our guess that there'll be dirt enough for all.

We've even been approached and asked to contribute to this sheet. We won't, because it would ruin our reputation for morality and sagacity, and whatnot.

Still, some folks don't think much of either. A debate called "Is an 'Imbecile' at the football debate of the Columbian last week, and all of the 20 people interested in football at the University, including Bill Dismer, heard him. It's a pity that we couldn't be there to make an even 21 present.

Besides, this Imbecile discoverer said that The Hatchet news stories and editorials were not "doing right by our football team," and that this journal was biased against the grid-iron squad. It's a tough life. Just two months ago The Hatchet was taken to task severely for praising the football team too much in its columns. All of which proves that you can't please everybody, even if you try.

Say, did you know that there were 14,000 Hatchets sent out last week? Six thousand went to the regular list, and the remainder to alumni. Wuxtry, all about Convocation and Cal.

Just 111 class officers will join the ranks of the great unemployed if the recommendation of the Student Life Committee is passed by the President's Council. The officers themselves admit they have no duties, and if they have, they don't know what they are. Nevertheless, they suggest that tradition requires that the offices be perpetuated. Maybe it was tradition that turned out the mob of all 19 who will represent the Junior Class of the University in the annual.

These editors have asked for a cut for each semester hour in so many editorials that they ought to be given what they're crying for. They might even print another editorial if the request isn't soon granted.

Maybe it'll be sometime soon.

Sometime soon, by the way, is to be in May and at Wardman Park Theater, if we may believe the Troubadour press notices.

With all this advance publicity, it ought to go over big. We are going to ask Phi Sig, or Acacia for a free duet. Or maybe we'll ask both.

Frosh debaters will do considerable flag waving and eagle screaming, and possibly even some radical ranting, if the titles of their addresses in the coming forensic foray mean anything. Columbian and Varsity debating scouts will be on hand looking for new material, we hear, and there may be verbal, if not armed, conflict.

Still, debating is a good profession. Look at James Kirkland, one of the Varsity debaters of years past, and still a good man. He's been chosen assistant U. S. District Attorney. Congratulations, Jimmy.

Congratulations reminds us that the Interfraternity Council Rotary Club officially approved the Gate and Key Dance last Monday.

The newly-organized Radio Club offers to send messages for students anywhere in the United States. We're going to send one to the girl friend, but we're going to make the operator put cotton in his ears when he reads the note aloud, so he won't know what we're radioing.

Closer at home, the co-ed riflers shoot a close shoulder-to-shoulder match. Whoopie! We apply for a job as assistant rifle coach.

DICK ROLLO.

SERIES OF TALKS BEGUN BY MODERN POETRY CLUB

Professor Baker addressed the Modern Poetry Club at its last meeting on the subject, "Essentials of Good Poetry." This is the first of a series of talks which will be given before the club by invited lecturers. Previous to this time the Club has been entertained by "programs worked out by the members."

TROUBADOUR PLAY TO BE CAST TODAY IN INITIAL TRY

Dennis Connell To Direct 1929 Production; Students To Aid

"SOMETIME SOON" SHOWS PROMISE; MUSIC GOOD

Chorus Try-outs in C. H. 1 at 12:45; Cast and Specialty Try-outs Tonight at 7:30

Final plans for the production of the Troubadours' fourth annual original musical comedy "Sometime Soon" were announced by managing director James Fleck, following a series of conferences of the producing staff of the Troubadours.

The 1929 Varsity musical comedy will be presented during the first or second week of May at the Wardman Park Theatre. The direction will be in charge of Dennis Connell who directed the 1928 success, "Sharps and Frats" and the actual production will be in the hands of the various student managers and directors constituting the producing staff of the company.

The preliminary try-outs for both cast and chorus parts in "Sometime Soon" will be held today, March 6, and the following try-outs scheduled will be announced at the first meetings.

Try-outs Today

Dancing director Julia Denning has set the first try-out for the chorus for 12:45 today in Corcoran Hall, room 1. All candidates for the chorus, including former members of the Troubadour chorus, should report to her prepared for actual work on the first number which is a fascinating "blue" song by musical director Bill Jemison. The dance routine has been worked out by Julia at Thayers Studio and represents the last word in modern chorus routine.

Try-outs at 7:30 in Corcoran Hall, room 1. Mr. Connell will hold the first cast try-out. All those desiring to compete for singing roles and to present specialty numbers should report. Greater opportunities for cast parts and specialty parts will be afforded this year than heretofore. Ralph Hilton's libretto provides for nine major speaking parts as well as numerous minor parts. In addition to these regular parts, place is provided for a number of specialty acts.

At the meeting of the producing staff held last Friday night at the Acacia Fraternity house the theme music of the libretto of "Sometime Soon" was read by the author, Ralph Hilton. Fifteen musical numbers were played by their composers, Katherine Meagher, Martha Stevens, Dan Beattie, Edgar Brower, and Bill Jemison. From these and from the ten additional numbers which Bill Jemison reports in the course of preparation by various student composers will be selected the tentative score. The final score will, however, not be selected until after March 15, up until which date additional musical compositions will be considered. Those wishing to submit their manuscripts are urged to do so through Dr. Bolwell, faculty advisor on dramatics.

The next meeting of the producing staff of the Troubadours will be held on next Monday night at 9:30 in Dr. Bolwell's office in building 6.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS TO BE MADE MARCH 16

Annual Scholarship Luncheon to be Held at Hays Adams House

Panhellenic Association will give its annual scholarship luncheon at the Hays Adams House, March 16. The guest of honor will be Mrs. Marvin.

Panhellenic will be represented by the senior delegate from each sorority, and the guests will be the active member and pledge of each sorority who has made the highest grades for the past semester.

Margaret Rees, Alpha Delta Pi, has been chosen toastmistress, and is planning a very interesting program. Each pledge will make a speech on subjects assigned by her. The luncheon will end with the presentation by Dean Rose of the Scholarship cup to the sorority whose members have made the highest average.

INAUGURAL PLANS GIVEN ON RADIO BY MRS. EVANS

Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., only woman member of the Board of Trustees of the University, and prominently identified with University events for many years, was the speaker over Radio Station WMAL last Wednesday evening, February 27. Speaking on behalf of the Inaugural Committee, Mrs. Evans' subject was, "Interpreting the Spirit of Washington to Inaugural Visitors."

MUSIC FOR PROM RECENTLY NAMED

Emory Daugherty's Syncopators To Be Feature Of Interfrat

WESLEY EDDY TO STAR IN NOVEL COMPETITION

Favors Selected and Final Plans Made at Meeting of Committee

Plans for what they hope will be the best and most impressive Interfraternity Prom ever given at George Washington University were completed at a meeting of the social committee held the past week.

Emory Daugherty and his celebrated Lido Band will supply the music for the Prom, which is to be given at the Willard Hotel on Friday, March 22, from 10 to 2. This aggregation of super-syncopators has an enviable record, particularly with the college set. They are adept at playing the slow tempo, which is now so much in demand. Only recently they have completed successful engagements at Trinity College, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and St. John's College at Annapolis, Maryland. At the Fancy Dress Ball at V. P. I., Daugherty and his boys are said to have outplayed one of the best-known orchestras in the East.

Wesley Eddy to be Guest

As an extra-special feature, Wesley Eddy and his Palace Syncopators will be the special guests of the committee in charge. The magnetic personality which Eddy commands is well known to Washington theatergoers, and is expected to be quite an attraction at the Prom. Promptly at 12:30, Eddy and his band will start a "battle of music" against Daugherty's boys, each striving to outplay the other. As this is the first time that this idea has been attempted here, much interest is being manifested.

There will be no pause in the dancing, as one band will start to play as soon as the other stops.

The favors have been selected and as the men are to be remembered as well as the ladies, there is more enthusiasm than ever. The programs will be off the press shortly and will be distributed so as to allow numerous exchanges to be made between members of the various fraternities.

Tickets are now on sale and may be obtained from any member of the Interfraternity Council. Members of fraternities not represented by chapters at G. W. may obtain tickets by leaving requests for them in the office of the Dean of Men.

Women's Glee Club To Give Concert March 16

Joint Concert of Johns Hopkins Men's Glee Club and G. W. Women's to be at the Raleigh

The Raleigh has been selected for the joint concert of the George Washington Women's Glee Club and the Men's Glee Club of Johns Hopkins University, which will be given March 16, at 8:30, under the direction of Robert Harman. The group from Johns Hopkins will bring its own orchestra, composed of fifteen pieces, which will furnish the music for dancing after the concert.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Women's Glee Club after March 6, the price to University students being $1.00 and to others $1.50.

Plans are now under way for a concert given in conjunction with the Men's Glee Club of George Washington University, to be given at the Mount Vernon Methodist Episcopal Church at Ninth and Massachusetts Avenue on March 28. More definite details will be given later.

OFFER TO TEACH RUSSIAN

JAMES KIRKLAND AWARDED OFFICE OF ATTORNEYSHIP

President of 1928 Law Class Is Named Assistant United States District Attorney

NEW APPOINTEE ACTIVE IN ORGANIZATIONS HERE

First G. W. Student to Receive Honored Position in Recent Years

United States District Attorney Leo A. Rover has appointed James R. Kirkland, President of the Law Graduating Class of June, 1928, as an Assistant-United States District Attorney for the District of Columbia. Kirkland is the first George Washington graduate to hold this position for several years.

"Jimmie" was born in Wilmington, Delaware, twenty-six years ago, although he has lived most of his life in Washington. He was educated in the Washington Public Schools and graduated as President of his class from the Washington Business High School in February, 1921. He is also a graduate of Emerson Preparatory Institute and the Washington Pace School of Accountancy, where he was President of the Pace Club, a branch of the Federation of Pace Clubs, of which he is a former National President. George Washington University awarded him his Bachelor of Arts degree October, 1927, and he will receive his Master of Laws degree in June, 1929, which work he has just completed.

Received School Honors

He has been active in organizations and debating, representing the George Washington University in the International Debates of 1927 and 1928. He is a former member of the Columbian Debating Society and was on the Varsity debating team for three years. He was honored last June as the first undergraduate to deliver the oration at the Tomb of George Washington on the Annual Mt. Vernon Pilgrimage. He was Chairman of the Board of Senior Class Presidents of 1928 and is on the Membership Committee of the Alumni Association. He is a member of Acacia, Phi Delta Phi, and Delta Sigma Rho Fraternities. He has also been admitted to the District of Columbia and Delaware Bars.

Headed Speakers Bureau

At the outset of the recent Presidential Campaign, Kirkland was a member of the Speakers Committee of the local Hoover-Curtis Club and was later placed in charge of the Delaware-Republican-Speakers Bureau, where he supervised the publicity and public speaking program of the Delaware Republican State Committee. He also had charge of the daily broadcasting program and was special counsel in the Delaware election appeal cases.

CHERRY TREE EDITORS GIVE FINAL REPORTS

Book Ready in May; Saturday Is Last Day for Copy; Beauty Judging Postponed

The Board of Editors of the 1929 Cherry Tree held its regular meeting Thursday night in the Cherry Tree office, at which time final reports were made by the different editors and the business staff.

Photographs will be delivered by the official photographer early this week and a concentrated effort is being made to assemble the book so that it will be available to the students in May. All copy should be forwarded to the Cherry Tree office in care of the University. Any changes to be made in copy or personal history of the graduating class must reach the office not later than Saturday of this week.

Announcement will be made in an early edition of the Hatchet when the book is ready to go to press. It is urged that each fraternity or other organization or society appoint someone to get in touch with the Cherry Tree Board to examine the final copy so that unnecessary mistakes may be avoided.

It is intended that the final awards in the Beauty Contest will be made this week or the early part of next. Owing to the illness of the judge, Howard Chandler Christy, the awards had to be postponed. Inasmuch as Alice Walford has dropped school, the next highest on the list, Ruth Campbell, will be added to the list of contestants.

PHYSICS COLLOQUIUM

There will be two lectures on March 8 in Building 4, room 23, on subjects of interest to physics students. E. H. Snyder will speak on "High Frequency Calibrations," and William Hershberger on "Temperature Variations in Piezo-Electric Effect." All students as well as faculty members are welcome at this forum.

Petticoat To Appear At Panhellenic Prom

Four Different Sororities Head Banner, Punch, Invitation and Program Committees

Marjorie Bowman, chairman of the Panhellenic Prom announces that plans are well under way. The committee in charge is composed of Marjorie Bowman, chairman, Myrtle Crouch, Margaret Rees and Evelyn Pierson. The following sororities have charge of the various committees: Pi Phi and Alpha Delta Pi, the banners and punch; Sigma Kappa the invitations and Zeta Tau Alpha the programs. Dagmoir band has been selected to furnish the music for the gala occasion. The Prom is to be at the Willard April 12, from 10 to 2 a. m.

The Petticoat, the scandal sheet edited by Gamma Eta Zeta, will make its appearance at this time and furnish unusual entertainment.

FROSH ORATORICAL CONTEST LOOMS

Contestants Now Preparing For Final Oral Contest On March 15

DEPARTMENT HEADS TO BE CONTEST JUDGES

Many Contestants Have Been Recorded; General Interest Points to Successful Contest

The time for submitting manuscripts of orations to be delivered in the Freshman Oratorical Contest, being sponsored by Phi Delta Gamma and the date of which is March 15, has been past and the freshmen who have turned in their copies to Professor Kayser, Secretary of the University, are now busily engaged in putting the final touches upon their oral delivery.

At the same time the executive committee of Phi Delta Gamma is rapidly completing all of the minor details incidental to the successful administration of the oral contest on March 15, in Room 1 of Corcoran Hall.

A great deal of interest has been shown in the contest which is the first of a series to be held annually hereafter, and the committee in charge states that its members are highly pleased at the resulting enthusiasm which has been displayed not only by the competing freshmen, but also by the freshman class as a whole, as well as a great portion of the general student body.

It is believed that these annual contests will have the desired effect in stimulating the forensic art in the University. It was with the realization that first-year students seldom compete for the debating squads that Phi Delta Gamma is offering a silver loving cup and two gold medals in an effort to stimulate the desired amount of interest. This is the purpose as made public by Raymond Crowell, Secretary of Phi Delta Gamma, when interviewed today.

President Marvin will preside over the contest and will personally present the prizes to the winning contestants. This, it is expected, will lend the desired amount of dignity to the occasion.

The judges, who, according to the rules of the contest, shall be the Professor of Public Speaking, the Secretary of the University, and the Head of the English Department, have been asked to pass upon the merits of the numerous entrants and their formal acceptance is expected within the next day or two.

The subjects of the orations vary from political to educational lines and include such titles as: "A Brief Review of Philippine Conditions," "Are Expenditures for National Defense Warranted?" "Soldiers of the Sea," "Building of a Nation," "Utility of the Press," "A Challenge to American Democracy," "Peace, How Can it be Obtained?" "The Value of a College Education," and "Tolerance."

Phi Delta Gamma has extended an invitation to everyone interested to attend. No admission will be charged.

Medical Society Will Have Banquet In April

Dr. Frank H. Lahey of Boston Lahey Clinic Will Be Speaker

Announcement has been made by Dr. C. N. Chipman, President of the George Washington University Medical Society, that the annual banquet of the society will be held at the Mayflower Hotel on April 20, 1929.

Dr. Frank H. Lahey of the Lahey Clinic of Boston will be the out-of-town speaker on that occasion.

The February meeting of the Society was held at the Medical School and was well attended. Captain W. J. Carroll delivered a short talk on the "Demonstration of Pathology and Diagnosis of Pneumonia by X-Ray," while Major H. D. Offutt spoke on the "Use of Diathermy in Pneumonia."

COLONIALS DOWN CATHOLIC U. FIVE IN FAST CONTEST

Buff and Blue Quint Ends Season by Defeating Old Rivals, 33-23

WINNERS, LED BY FINE HOLD LEAD THROUGHOUT

Gray and Snow also Shine in Long-Waited Victory Over Rivals

In a game which dispelled all doubt as to the relative merits of the two teams, the George Washington basketballers swept to victory over their most ardent rivals, the Catholic University Cardinals, 33-23, a week ago last Tuesday night in the G. W. Gym.

By their decisive victory, the Buff and Blue quint amply avenged all C. U. defeats of George Washington teams in the last two years, and gave their followers the happy satisfaction of at last seeing a G. W. team superior to one wearing the colors of Catholic University.

From the standpoint of G. W. fans the game left little to be desired. The Colonials went into the lead at the very outset and were never headed. At no time during the fray were the Cardinals closer than three points to their foes and the final decision was the only logical outcome.

Fine, Snow, Gray Star

For the Colonials, three players stood out head and shoulders above the rest, although perhaps Irvin Fine, midget forward, scoring 18 points, was the most decisive of the three. Bill Snow, center, and Bobby Gray, guard, both played bang-up games for the winners and materially aided their team in its overwhelming ambition to triumph.

Snow jumped back into form with a violence against the Cardinals, showing such a display of brilliance that it was almost inconceivable to believe that the youngster was just recovering from the painful effects of a broken nose. The lanky rookie consistently got the jump for his team and scored eight points during the contest.

Bobby Gray was another G. W. luminary to shine. Although taking but a meager hand in the scoring, Gray was here, there, and everywhere on the floor, continually breaking up enemy passes and feeding the ball to his fellow mates. The brilliant guard played probably the best floor game of any man on either team and shot a small part in his team's triumph.

Throughout the first half, the Cardinals were able to score but two field goals, scoring their remaining 9 points on foul tosses. In fact, only five field goals were scored by the losers during the entire game, with little Joey Walsh making four of these. The end of the first half found the score, 16-13, in the Hatchettes' favor and it was the closest the Red Birds ever got.

Coach Crum deserves great credit for exhibiting the team that he did, and he probably got a greater "kick" than anyone when he found himself able to send in a "second" team against his old foes.

Make Impressive Start

The game opened brilliantly enough for the home team, as within the first four minutes Snow had tapped one in from right under the basket, and Fine had taken the following tap-off to dribble the entire length of the floor for the second score. The midget player was fouled in his act, and promptly made good on the free toss.

With a 5-0 lead, Mullaney scored the first point for C. U. on a charity throw, but the Colonials again "stepped out" and fouls by Gray and Fine gave them two more points before the latter duplicated his first field goal by dribbling down the floor again. Walsh then scored the first field goal for the Red Birds, after which, alternate baskets left the score 15-8 in G. W.'s favor. Three more foul tosses and a field goal brought the Cardinal count to 13, while Snow added one from the 15-foot mark for G. W.'s last count in the first half.

Coming back after the intermission, the Colonials opened with a bang. Fine taking Snow's tap-off and quickly dribbled down for a snailbird.

After Reilly's goal, Fine again scored with a snailbird and Snow tossed in a long one from mid-court. Johnny Thacker, who had been playing a fine game though not scoring, then came through with his first field goal, before the Cardinals again

The Hatchet Advocates:

1. A School of Journalism for George Washington University.
2. Freedom of Press for Campus Publications.
3. Recognition of Student Opinion in Matters of Administrative Policy Pertaining to Students.

CLASS OFFICERS

The Hatchet feels that the recommendation of the Student Life Committee concerning class officers is a wise one, and one that the President's Council would do well to consider carefully.

In the first place it should be noted that there are at present 115 student class offices in the University, exclusive of the Law and Medical schools. Last year there were 120 valid ballots cast for these 115 offices. In other words, 120 people elected 115 to office. The new policy would reduce the number of officers to four, and would increase the number of voters, because the voters would not be checked as to class. No ballots would therefore be void.

Moreover, with fewer officers, the competition would be greater, and hence, the type of officeholder would improve, though no fault is to be found with the present officers for doing nothing. Rather, the fault lies in the fact that there are not 115 jobs around the University for them to do.

The new officers would represent the University and not an individual class of an individual college. Not only would the University profit by such a policy, but class distinctions are ill-defined at George Washington, to say the least, for students in one class in June go to summer school, and change class by September. A startling example of lack of class consciousness may be seen in the turnout of 19 students to take part in the Junior Class photograph for The Cherry Tree. With such a lack, class officers are now chosen on the false assumption that such a consciousness exists.

That the new officers would have duties is assured by the provision whereby the president of the student body is also president of the Senior Class, and a member of the Student Life Committee, where he can echo student thought and wishes.

The only thing that the plan leaves to be desired is that it wasn't adopted long ago. It is decidedly a long-felt need.

STILL CONCERNING CUTS

At New York University, students on the Honor Roll, that is, averaging "B" or better on grades, are allowed to come to class whenever they care to do so, as long as they remain on the Honor Roll. All students are allowed as many cuts as the class has semester hours.

The Hatchet asks no such concession for honor students, but merely that each student be allowed as many cuts a semester as each course is worth in semester hours. This seems fair enough.

Students and their out-of-town guests celebrated (as only George Washington's social "elect" know how) the Inaugural Day ceremonies with one of the largest gatherings ever assembled in Corcoran "Ball Room" for the informal dance held by the Gate and Key Society, Monday evening.

Kappa Sigma announces the pledging of Ross Schearer of Houston, Texas.

A little pre-inaugural celebration was held at the T. U. O. house last Friday night, in the way of an informal dance.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon will commemorate the founding of the fraternity in 1856, with a banquet at the chapter house on Saturday evening, March 9. Hon. A. O. Stanley will act as toastmaster.

Claudia Sutton, Clouie Senitiere and Mae Harris Clarke spent the past week end at Annapolis.

Steve Blackman and his mother, Mrs. S. A. Blackman, entertained members of Acadia and their friends at a housewarming last Sunday afternoon.

Alpha Zeta and Beta Mu chapters of Alpha Kappa Kappa Medical fraternity, located at George Washington and Georgetown Universities, held their annual dance at the Willard Hotel on February 21.

Babe Whyte entertained a group of friends at a bridge party on Wednesday evening at his home. Guests included Beverly Rittenhouse, Evelyn Esch, Betsy Hoge, Ed Jamieson, Wesley Jones, and Brad Swope.

Catherine Todd, Virginia Bonfant, Louise Ward, Myrtle Davidson, Robert Moncre and Rolston Lyon attended the Tri-Diocesan Conference of the Episcopal Clubs in the Dioceses of Eastern Maryland and Washington, held in Baltimore over the past week end. Club members of Johns Hopkins University entertained the guest members at a tea dance Saturday afternoon.

The pledges of Chi Omega are giving a dance in honor of the members of the active chapter on Thursday, March 7, at the Women's Club of Bethesda.

Miss Catherine Callan, Province Secretary of Alpha Delta Theta, visited this chapter of the sorority last Monday and Tuesday. The chapter entertained her quite extensively during her visit. A formal banquet was held in Miss Callan's honor on Tuesday, February 26, at the Raleigh Hotel. This sorority also gave a tea on Monday, February 25, at which Mrs. Clay Heck Marvin, Miss Anna Cooper, Miss Linda J. Kincannon, Mrs. Chindblom, Mrs. Morrow, the officers of the other sororities on the campus and other guests were present to meet Miss Callan.

The members of Phi Sigma Kappa entertained a number of guests at dinner in their Eye Street Chapter House last Sunday, among whom were: Muriel Davis, Mary Hudson, Hermione John, Maude Hudson, Peggy Rees, Helen Furer, Suzanne Jamison, Louisa Saegmuller, Mary Crowley, and Margaret Harriman.

The pledges of Phi Sigma Sigma held a bridge for the members of the chapter in the rooms Thursday, February 26.

Chi Omega will hold a banquet in honor of the anniversary of the installation of this chapter on March 9, at the Hotel Roosevelt.

Phi Mu celebrated the 77th anniversary of its founding with a banquet at the Carlton Hotel, March 2. Guests were invited for the dance which followed.

Marjorie Simonds spent last week-end at Annapolis.

The pledges of Pi Beta Phi gave their annual goat show at the Cleveland Park Club, Friday evening, March 1. It was pronounced a huge success by both the actives and the many alumnae who attended.

Alpha Delta Theta announces the formal pledging of Sally Casteel, Helen Hall, Frances Hall, Louise Wentchel, and Margaret Payne.

Informal initiation of the pledges of Phi Delta was held February 25th, at the home of Emily Mitchell.

Cues, Curtain Calls and Clinches

By STAGE DOOR JOHNNY

COLUMBIA

Loew's Columbia has the all-talking picture, "The Doctor's Secret." The picture concerns London high society and a wealthy self-made man who regards his bought-and-paid-for aristocratic wife with no little contempt. She plans to find happiness with "the other man," and her carefully laid plans go wrong.

Briefly, the wife decides to run away with her real lover, and joins him a short time before he sails for Egypt. He goes out to buy her clothes and is brought back dead, the victim of an automobile accident. She tells the doctor who brings him in about herself, but does not reveal her name. That evening, after she has returned home and tried in vain to recover the note she had left for her husband, she is surprised to find the doctor the guest of her husband.

Jack Pepper, acting as master of ceremonies, will introduce Frances White, the Ponce Sisters, the Reynolds Sisters and Joseph Regan in a Metro Movietone Revue. Another movietone act produced by Metro will feature Jan Garber and his band, with elaborate settings and specialties.

EARLE

Sound effects and music, synchronized with the action of the picture by Paramount's new processes, are to be found in Richard Dix's picture "Redskin." The picture, filmed in natural color, is a new epic of the West. A special theme song, "Redskin," is introduced in the picture, and a mixed chorus chants the original Indian songs, including the wedding chant of the Navajos.

Miss Helen Clark, Victor recording artist, sings the theme song, and the Paramount Orchestra of 75 pieces carries the musical score throughout.

FOX

The new William Fox production "New Year Eve" features Mary Astor and Charles Morton.

Miss Astor appears as a girl of misfortune in a tenement where, with her little brother, she faces the new year with a very dark outlook. She steps out for adventure and a story of thrills, romance and laughter follows. Johnny Marvin, recording and radio star, heads the stage program and inaugurates a season of greater stage attractions for the Fox Theater.

METROPOLITAN

Richard Barthelmess makes his appearance on the screen this week at the Metropolitan Theater in "Weary River."

"Weary River" has given Barthelmess an unusual role to play in an exceptionally dramatic story of a man who was framed, sent to prison, disillusioned, inspired and then finds himself in song and music, winning fame, fortune and love via the radio. In the cast is Betty Compson and Frank Lloyd-directed the picture.

PALACE

John Gilbert, supported by Ernest Torrence and Mary Nolan, in "Desert Nights," is the current screen attraction at Loew's Palace.

Gilbert portrays the role of manager of a South African diamond mine, who is taken prisoner along with a fortune of gems. The story is one of love and revenge in the wastes of a vast African desert, in which Gilbert's character is the dominating figure, first as a prisoner and then as a savior of the girl and her bogus father, who are responsible for his and their plight.

On the stage Wesley Eddy and the "Palace Syncopators" will be seen in the Loew-Palace production, "Carnival Cocktail."

GHOST BOARD OFFERS YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION

Contest For Cleverest Joke and Best Drawing Is Scheduled For April Issue

The Board of Editors of the Ghost has announced a contest for the cleverest joke and the best drawing sent in for the April issue. Contributions should be left in Dean Doyle's office or in the Ghost box in Lisner Hall on or before Wednesday, March 15. A year's subscription to the magazine will be awarded to each winner.

The March issue of the Ghost, the Phantom Number, is scheduled to appear Friday, March 15. William Dove Thompson will edit the issue and Wesley Jones will act in the capacity of Business Manager.

A "Scientific Treatise on Disease"

Prevalent Amongst College Students, the Hangover," written by Ed Jamison and illustrated by "Doc" Armstrong will be featured.

The poems, features, and drawings which will complete the number, include the work of several new contributors.

The Board of Editors will adopt a new policy when, in the near future, stories are run in the Ghost, in answer to repeated requests. Persons interested in submitting such, are requested to leave them, preferably typewritten, in Dean Doyle's office or in the Ghost box.

Rainbow Tracked to Blue Tin

Newton, Ill., Feb. 22, 1923

Larus & Brother Co.,
Richmond, Va.

Gentlemen:

The tobacco samples you sent me have been received, and they are great. If you can picture in your mind the lonesomeness of a traveling man in a small town on a rainy night, not a friend in a hundred miles, nothing to do and no place to go:

That was the position I was in when your samples of Edgeworth came. It was like a voice from above when I opened the package and got the old pipe steaming.

I have smoked various brands of tobacco for the past fifteen years, but never in my life have I found a tobacco at any price that will equal Edgeworth. It does not bite the tongue, and a beautiful aroma follows. With the good old friend pipe and a can of Edgeworth, you can dream of the rainbow's end.

Please count me in the future as an Edgeworth booster.

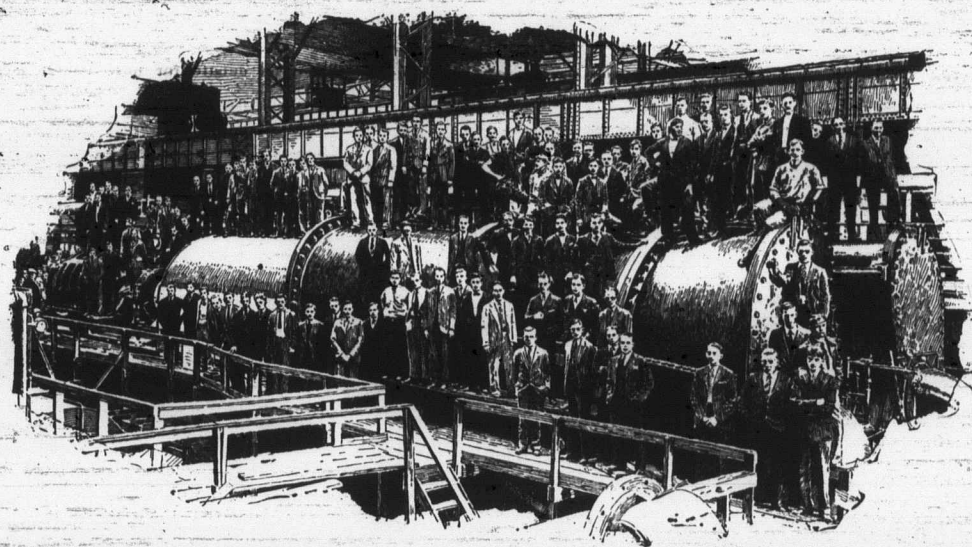

Very truly,
(Signed) Al Stanley

Generating Brain Power

BRAIN power, not horsepower, is the chief operating requirement of the electrical industry.

This requirement must be continuously anticipated to provide leaders for the future. Accordingly, each year, more than 400 picked college graduates come to the General Electric Company for a post-graduate course in electrical science.

With a faculty including inventors and engineers of international distinction, something more than electrical knowledge is imparted to these young men. Here they also find inspiration which prepares them for leadership in this electrical age.

You will see this monogram on the powerful motors of an electric locomotive and on the convenience outlet where you plug in a floor lamp—always and everywhere it is a safe guide to electrical quality and dependability.

WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM CONQUERS CARNEGIE CO-EDS

First Shoulder-to-Shoulder Meet Of Season Proves To Be Closest in Years

SEVEN CO-EDS MAKE TRIP TO PITTSBURGH

Championship Team Downs Opponents by Three Points by Score of 496-493

In their first shoulder-to-shoulder match of this season, the George Washington co-ed rifle team defeated Carnegie Tech on the C. I. T. range in Pittsburgh last Saturday, March 2, by a close margin of three points. Shooting against the most worthy opponents that they have faced in years, the Colonial team outdid all previous records for shoulder-to-shoulder shooting and even equalled their best scores for telegraphic matches by dropping only four points out of a possible 500 for a score of 496 against the 493 scored by their opponents.

Seven Co-eds Make Trip

The seven members of the varsity squad chosen to make the trip were Betty Clarke, Eugenia Cuvillier, Helen Prentiss, Kitty Junkin, Marjorie Leighy, Verna Parsons and Helen Taylor.

This is the first match in which the G. W. team has relied solely on the coaching of Clarke and Prentiss without the help of Walter Stokes. Each of the two coaches turned in perfect scores, while Gene Cuvillier, manager of the squad, scored a 99, as well as Kitty Junkin, a recent addition to the squad and a novice at shoulder-to-shoulder shooting. The other counting target was shot by Marjorie Leighy, who scored a 98. Neither Helen Taylor nor Verna Parsons were up to their usual form, making a 98 and 97, respectively.

Shooting under the most unfavorable conditions on a strange range, under the pressure of shoulder-to-shoulder shooting and against experienced shots, the record turned in by the champions was nothing short of remarkable.

Visitors Feted

After the match a banquet was given by Mrs. Green, Dean of Women at Carnegie Tech, in honor of the visitors. The next match scheduled will be a telegraphic match with the University of Washington at Seattle. Later the squad will shoot in the Dot and Circle competition and a shoulder-to-shoulder match with Maryland at the Maryland range.

Scores made by the five high on the Colonial team are:

Clarke	100
Prentiss	100
Cuvillier	99
Junkin	99
Leighy	98

HOOD COLLEGE BASKET BALL GAME IS TODAY

Twenty-two Girls Make Trip to Frederick for First Game Away From Home

Looking forward to a hard-fought game in competition with the strong Hood College basketball team, Miss Davis, George Washington coach, is taking the entire women's basketball squad of twenty-two to Frederick for the game at 4.00 o'clock this afternoon.

In the first trip away from Washington this season for the Colonial team, the co-eds will face a sextet with a reputation as a strong team, which has never appeared on the George Washington basketball schedule. The Hood team has been playing only on a two-court floor, but will use the regulation three-court floor for this game, which should prove to be an advantage to the local team.

The probable line-up for the start of the game will be Naomi Crumley and Louise Berryman at forward; Julia Denning, center; Jenny Turnbull, side center; and Betty Zimmerman and Evelyn Folsom as guards.

Colonial Rifle Team Beats V. M. I. Shots

Tomelden Makes High Score of 273 For George Washington, with Harrell Second

On February 16 the G. W. men's rifle team won a telegraphic match from V. M. I. by a score of 1325 to 1316.

Arturo Tomelden was high man for G. W. with 273, while Theodore Harrell was second with 266. Both men deserve much credit, having entered as beginners this year.

Scores	Stand.	Kn.	Pr.	Total
Tomelden	83	93	97	273
Harrell	78	88	100	266
Kerns	78	90	95	263
Ball	78	89	96	263
Marquis	75	88	97	260

This match was the first of seven League Matches.

This week, ending March 9, the team shoots a telegraphic match with V. P. I.

Saturday, March 9, the team goes to Annapolis to shoot a shoulder-to-shoulder match with the Naval Academy.

The team has been badly crippled by the loss of a number of men who have been put on probation. However, the team is showing new and unexpected strength and should do well against Navy.

Colonial Tennis Team To Meet Strong Foés

Army, Navy, Virginia, Maryland, C. U., Among Those on G. W. Schedule

It is expected that Dr. W. Stull Holt will call out candidates for the men's tennis team of the University in the near future.

An attractive schedule has been tentatively arranged by Manager Bill Shreve, including such teams as West Point, Navy, Virginia, Maryland, University of North Carolina, William and Mary, Catholic University and various country clubs.

Many candidates are expected to answer Dr. Holt's call and prospects lean toward one of the best teams in the history of the University.

Capt. Larry Phillips, Bob Conlindine, Alan Staubly, Don Slicker and Ken Watson are the veterans returning from last year's undefeated team, while there are several newcomers to the University of unusual tennis ability.

The schedule has been only tentatively arranged, due to the fact that as yet the University has made no appropriation for it.

CO-ED BASKETERS VANQUISH DREXEL

Colonial Team Shows Up Well For Second Victory of Season

SCORE AT CLOSE IS 32-11

Folsom and Zimmerman Play Good Game in Guard Positions Until Substitutes Enter

Winning by a score of 32-11, the George Washington co-ed basketball team decisively downed Drexel Institute in the second game of the season for G. W. This contest took place in the Colonial gym at 7.30 on Saturday, March 2.

The G. W. team left few chances for their opponents to cage the ball by their excellent pass work and invincible guarding. The opposing forwards did their best against the Buff and Blue guards, but the Folsom-Zimmerman combination proved to be too much for them.

Louise Berryman, playing in her first varsity game, eluded the Drexel guards to make three baskets from the field in the first half, and two baskets in the second, one of which was a long shot from a difficult position.

Second Team Substituted

During the second half, when the Colonial team began with a lead of 44-2, the second team was substituted throughout, so that most of the varsity squad was given an opportunity to play in the game. In spite of the first team being taken out of the play, the score continued to pile up until G. W. led by 32-11 at the final whistle.

The line-up:

GEO. WASH. (32)	DREXEL (11)
Crumley (20).....F.....	Stone (1)
Berryman (10).....F.....	Henderson (3)
Denning.....C.....	Anderson
Turnbull.....SC.....	Titus
Zimmerman.....G.....	Rust
Folsom.....F.....	Bennis

Substitutions: G. W.—Albert for Denning, Wright for Turnbull, Reed for Sproul, Ewin for Zimmerman, Sime for Folsom; Drexel—Laurence (7) for Stone, Adamson for Anderson.

Umpire: Alberts. Referee: Haugen. Scorekeepers: Ketchworth and Alverston. Timekeepers: Sproul and Denning.

CO-ED BASKETERS TO START CLASS SERIES

Varsity Squad Divided Evenly Among Four Classes; to Start Next Week

Because the varsity squad is almost equally divided among all four classes, the women's interclass basketball games, starting next week, promise to be the most interesting series played at George Washington for some time. The games will be played in the H Street gymnasium on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

Although the sophomores have the greatest number of varsity players in their class, the freshmen have the largest group from which to select their team.

Forty-four freshmen came out for basketball and there will be three or four freshmen teams. New women who are outstanding in having made the varsity squad in their first year are: Marian Lum, forward; Rosalie Reed, side center; Edith McCoy, guard; and Neva Ewin, guard.

The sophomores have an equally good line-up with six from the varsity squad. There will very likely be two sophomore teams. Martha Benenson, Roberta Wright, Dorothy Albert, Evelyn Folsom, Katherine Palmer, and Mary Sproul make a combination hard to beat.

The juniors have such players as Naomi Crumley, captain of varsity, Jean Sime, Jenny Turnbull, all varsity, and also Claudia Kyle, Ruth Chindblom, and Josephine Irey.

The senior class team consists of Julia Denning and Betty Zimmerman, both varsity players. However, as their group is so small, it will use in its games players taken from the other three classes.

The schedule of the games will be published in the next issue of the Hatchet.

DEBATERS UPHOLD FOOTBALL IN G. W. BY BIG MAJORITY

Columbian Debating Society Is Against Abolition of Football in University

SIZZLING ARGUMENTS GIVEN BY BOTH SIDES

Hatch and Sanders Wax Hot; Weigle and Shriver Become Sarcastic in Constructive Debate

Despite predictions to the contrary, the Columbian Debating Society upheld George Washington University's participation in football by an overwhelming vote, and exhibited a spirit that would do justice to the leading rah-rah colleges of the country, last Friday evening, March 1.

A resolution that football in G. W. be abolished was introduced in the society. George Weigle and Douglas Hatch upheld the resolution, while Gwynn Sanders and Robert Shriver argued for the negative.

Gwynn Sanders, a member of last season's team, made severe attacks on the Hatchet staff for alleged misinterpretations of the football situation and the way their games had been reported.

The debate was well attended by non-members. In fact, it drew a bigger crowd than the last two varsity debates.

George E. Weigle, the first speaker for the affirmative, held that the student body of the University is unusual in that it is largely composed of working students.

Robert Shriver, who opened the case for the negative, contended that good athletic teams increase the enrollment of a school.

Douglas Hatch, who closed the constructive argument for the affirmative, contended that unless G. W. can have good football teams it would be better to have none at all. Gwynn Sanders, after praising the great American game of football, deplored the fact that there were so many G. W. men who preferred to play bridge with the co-eds between classes rather than practice football in he-man fashion. "If the school is not in favor of football, we should never let it bear the name of George Washington, but instead call it 'Teddy Bear College,'" said Sanders. In the three-minute speeches after the debate Ralph Morgali was the only member who spoke against football. Hearst R. Duncan, Gilbert Rabinowitz and William Dismar favored the continuance of football at G. W.

The debate for next Friday evening, March 8, is "Resolved, That this house approves the principles of socialism." The affirmative will be upheld by Lewis Dembitz and J. Lyman, while Harold F. Arps and Bryant McLeroy argue for the negative.

LEAGUE B TITLE WON BY SIG ALPHA BOWLERS

Kappa Alpha and Acacia Tie For Leadership in League A

Three new records were set as S. A. E. won the honors in League B and Kappa Alpha and Acacia went into a tie for the leadership in League A of the interfraternity bowling tournament, which is nearing the finals.

In League A, Acacia's defeat of Kappa Alpha sent those two teams out in front, each having won three games and lost one. The fate of both lies in the hands of T. U. O., which is to meet both of these in its remaining two games. However, Phi Sigma Kappa and Theta Upsilon Omega still are in the running, as each has won two matches and lost one and has two to play.

By defeating Sigma Phi Epsilon, S. A. E. won the title in League B and will meet the victor of the other league. In this last game the S. A. E's set two records, which probably will stand for the year. One of these was a high team score for one game of 549, the other being a high five-man three-game set of 1,555.

Riddle of Acacia also established the high individual three-game set by shooting 356.

Standing in the two leagues are:

LEAGUE A	W	L	Per.
Kappa Alpha	3	1	.750
Acacia	3	1	.750
Phi Sigma Kappa	2	1	.666
Theta Upsilon Omega	2	1	.666

COLONIALS DOWN C. U.

scored two on Walsh's long toss making the score read, 24-17.

Colonials Spurt

At this point the Colonials spurted so far into the lead that the final outcome became only a matter of points. Two fouls by Fine and a double-decker foul by Thacker, gave them a 12-point lead, at which point numerous substitutions were made by both teams. For the rest of the game the scoring was evenly divided, and with two minutes left to play, Coach Crum sent in his entire string of reserves with instructions to "hold" the Cardinals. And hold they did, for nary a point did the Red Birds get, while Fine and Chambers added two more "free" shots to nicely climax the season's biggest success.

DENNING IS RE-ELECTED CAPTAIN OF SWIMMERS

Women's Interclass Swimming Meet Is Being Planned for Saturday, April 13

Julia Denning was re-elected captain of the varsity swimming team at a meeting of the varsity squad held last week.

At a previous meeting it was decided that the G. W. team would swim against New York University and Harrisonburg here in the latter part of May.

An interclass swimming meet is being planned for April 13, for which only those who have regularly attended two periods a week will be eligible.

Members of the varsity squad at the present time are: Julia Denning, Betty Cates, India Belle Corea, Elise Collins, Francesca Martin, Margaret Mitchell, Amalie Walker, Helen Walker, Claudia Kyle, Helen Humphrey, Effie Wade, Eleanor Kise, Corella Morris, Betsy Booth, Marie Siegrist and Margaret Moreland.

NEW PLAN WOULD ELIMINATE MANY CLASS OFFICERS

Committee on Student Life Submits Election Scheme To President's Council

SCHEME REPLACES 115 OFFICERS WITH FOUR

All Schools Except Law and Medicine Would Participate in Single Election

Abolition of the present 115 student class officers, and the substitution next year of four general University officers elected by the student body of all schools save the Law School, and the School of Medicine, will take place if the recommendation sent to the President's Council by the Student Life Committee last week is favorably acted on by the former body.

The committee recommended that the new officers consist of a president, who must be a senior, a junior to be first vice president, a sophomore for second vice president, and a freshman for secretary. Elections would be held in the fall, and every one would be allowed to vote for all officers under the new plan.

50 Signatures Needed

Fifty signatures would be necessary for every nomination. All officers are required to be undergraduates, and the person chosen for the office of president of the student body is also to be president of the Senior Class and a member of the Student Life Committee.

The Recommendation follows:

The Student Life Committee respectfully and unanimously recommends the following to the President's Council:

"1. That the present system of electing a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and sergeant-at-arms for each of the several classes in Columbian College, the School of Engineering, the School of Pharmacy, the School of Education, the Division of Library Science, and the Division of Fine Arts, be abolished.

Each Class Represented

"2. That four general officers for the student body of the above named schools be elected annually by the students thereof, and that the offices be distributed as follows: The president shall be a member of the senior class of one of the foregoing schools, and the first vice president, the second vice president, and the secretary shall be members of the junior, sophomore and freshman classes, respectively, of the above mentioned schools.

"3. That candidates for office must be nominated by petitions signed by not less than fifty names, and that nominees must be candidates for the A. B. degree or its equivalent, carrying at least nine hours, and being neither on probation nor warned for poor scholarship.

"4. That each nominee be a candidate for the office which his class as determined by the University catalog shall entitle him, regardless of the office for which he is nominated.

Elections in Fall

"5. That the election of officers be held in the fall for the ensuing school year, with a student activities card constituting the sole qualification for voting for candidates for all four offices.

"6. That the president of the student body so elected automatically become the president of the senior class, and a member of the Student Life Committee."

The present Student Life Committee is composed of the Dean of Women, chairman, the Dean of Men, and five students, Herbert E. Angel, Darrell Crain, Louise DuBose, Helen Prentiss and Ford Young.

COLONIAL WIG WILL APPEAR MARCH 13

In answer to numerous inquiries, the Board of Editors announces that the next Colonial Wig will appear on the campus March 13.

This will be the second number of the periodical put out this year. Football at G. W., the open forum promised some time ago, will comprise only one of the features included.

For the benefit of new students at the University the Wig reiterates that it is the literary quarterly of G. W., that it publishes material written only by the students of the University, from day or evening schools; that this material is selected by the staff on a wholly impartial basis; and that the Wig Box, where manuscript may be left, is located in the hallway adjacent to the downstairs library in Lister Hall. Contributions are welcomed and may be submitted now for the third issue.

MEN LOSE DEBATE BUT WOMEN WIN

Richmond U. Team Beats Varsity Debaters; G. W. Women Conquer Swarthmore

FREE TRADE DEBATED

"Split Style" Used by Women; Audience Decides Debate in Both Forensic Contests

While the George Washington Men's Varsity Debating team continued losing, the women's team won another debate. The men lost on February 26, to Richmond University, while the women beat Swarthmore College on March 1.

Paul Keough, Robert Parsons and Hearst Duncan composed the men's team that bowed to the Richmond team. They made a valiant fight against free trade.

The debaters from Richmond asserted that the present policy of the United States works for the taxation of the millions for the benefit of the few. The division of labor, proven to be essential to modern industry, should be extended among all nations. The debaters also maintained that the reasons why this country has a protective policy had been lost.

The Colonials pointed that the prosperity of this country is due to its protective policy. They argued that no political party had ever espoused the cause of free trade. They forecast that the millennium was still far away.

The George Washington-Swarthmore forensic battle was performed in what is known as the "split style," two George Washington women and one Swarthmore woman upholding the negative, and two Swarthmore women and one George Washington woman arguing for the affirmative.

The affirmative side was composed of Elizabeth Reeves, of George Washington, and Frances Reinhold and Marlon Hall, both of Swarthmore. The negative was upheld by Ruth Kernan, of George Washington, Louise Fisher, of Swarthmore, and Virginia Frye, of George Washington.

The affirmative maintained that present-day advertising is a menace to public welfare. The Swarthmore girls contended that present-day advertising is economically unsound, ethically unjustifiable and esthetically objectionable.

The George Washington girls asserted that advertising was an essential part of the distribution of commercial products. They also contended that modern advertising is a form of educating the public.

Drama Club Presents Three Plays March 2

Dennis Connell, Nationally Known Director, Compliments Plays Highly

A repertoire of three plays was presented by the Drama Club on Saturday, March 2, in Corcoran Hall 1. Dennis Connell, nationally noted stage director, gave a brief criticism of the plays after the program.

The program consisted of "The Woman Acquitted," by Andre de Lorde, "The Slump," by Frederic Lansing Day, and "Suppressed Desires," by Susan Glaspell.

The cast of the first play included Mary Jamieson, Warren Briggs, Harry Clayton, Thomas Mitchell, Fred Wetzell, and Andrew Allison.

Nell Childs, Joseph Sorrell, and Richard Sawyer, presented "The Slump," a comic-tragedy of middle class married life. "Suppressed Desires," with Mary Crowley, Oscar Berry, and Virginia Frye, was the high spot of the evening. It was a sheer comedy on the modern fad of psychoanalysis. The play was run off more smoothly, and embodied better acting than its predecessors.

After the program, Mr. Connell complimented the club for its work, emphasizing its spontaneity and earnestness. Mr. Connell also urged the need for developing directors as well as actors.

Board of Trustees Votes To Create Two New Deans

NEW DEANS TO DIRECT NEW STUDENT GROUPS

Dean of Lower Division Students to Work With Dean of Columbian

Creation of two new administrative offices in Columbian College, the College of Liberal Arts of The George Washington University, was voted at the meeting of the Board of Trustees of the University at its meeting on Wednesday last.

The Board voted to add to the staff of Columbian College a Dean of lower division students, and an Assistant Dean for special students and certain students with limited schedules. Under this plan the Dean of Columbian College will supervise the work of junior and senior students only. The Dean of lower division students will be in charge of freshmen and sophomores.

There will be created a junior certificate which must be possessed by students before they can be admitted into the upper division work, the Board has announced. The quantitative and qualitative requirements for the junior certificate will be worked out by the faculty of Columbian College.

ENLAR RYGG TO ADDRESS CLASS IN PROOFREADING

Newman Club To Hear Prior of Monastery

Rev. Father Ignatius Smith To Speak on "St. Thomas Aquinas" March 7

Rev. Father Ignatius Smith, O. P., will address the meeting of the Newman Club in Corcoran Hall on Thursday, March 7, at 8:15 p. m. Father Smith, who is the Prior of the Dominican Monastery in Brookland and one of the most gifted and eloquent speakers in Washington, will talk on "Saint Thomas Aquinas."

This lecture will be of particular interest to students of philosophy, as Saint Thomas Aquinas is considered the Father of Scholastic Philosophy. All students of the University are invited to attend the meeting.

Over 150 members of the Newman Club attended the tea and reception given by the Club on Sunday, February 24, at the National Catholic Social Service School. Several members of the Charles Carroll Newman Club of Johns Hopkins University were present at the affair.

Arrangements have been made for the members of the Club to attend in a body the nine o'clock Mass at St. Patrick's Church on Palm Sunday, March 24. Following the Mass there will be a Communion Breakfast at the Hotel Harrington. The committee in charge of this affair is composed of Charles Ferry, Bernardine Horn, Mary Connelly and Tom McCarthy.

PRODUCING STAFF FOR TROUBADOURS

Self-Perpetuating Producing Staff Is Plan of President's Committee

COMPETITIVE FACTOR TO DETERMINE MEMBERSHIP

Moulton, Henninger, Blackman, Parker, Denning, Campbell, Jemison, Fleck are Present Members

Following the plans adopted by the 1928 producing staff of the Troubadours and approved by the President's Committee on Dramatics, all assistant managers on the technical staff of the Troubadours will hereafter be chosen according to merits from competitors for the several positions at the close of each season's production. The successful competitors will be announced at the close of each current season prior to the opening performance of the varsity musical comedy.

The competitive plan which will be officially inaugurated this year will require two years to get into complete operation. When in operation the plan will provide a self-perpetuating producing staff of trained managers and directors in the technical departments of the Troubadour Company.

Under the competitive system the successful candidate in the competition for a given department in one year will be second assistant manager the following year. In the two years following the offices of assistant manager and manager will be held by the successful student.

But who wants a "fairly good egg"?

When his Lordship the Bishop asked his guest how he enjoyed the breakfast egg, that timid—but always truthful—young curate replied: "Parts of it were excellent, sir!" Now isn't that just like saying that such-and-such a cigarette is mild? Mildness in tobacco is not to be despised, but is it the ne plus ultra, the summum bonum, the... in plain English, is that all you ask from your cigarette? We think not.

Take Chesterfield's mildness for granted, and get the full relish of its rich, real taste under your tongue. That's its difference from the common run—all the difference between plus and minus. Chesterfields are mild... and yet they satisfy!
